Do You Enjoy Rock Climbing?

Would You Like to Take Your Unit Climbing?

If so, this climbing instructor training course is for you!

Participants will enjoy two weekends of classroom and hands-on training, including instruction in Climbing Technique, Safety Considerations, Gear Selection and Care, Group Instruction and Route Selection and Set-Up. These topics will be presented by experienced members of the council climbing committee.

The first weekend will focus on classroom learning at Butte Creek Scout Ranch, and the second weekend will be on-hands skills at Horsethief Butte.

Persons age 16 and older are able to attend, but only those 18 and up are eligible to become certified BSA Climbing Instructors. Certification as a BSA Climbing Instructor requires completion of this course and approval of course instructors, council climbing committee and council climbing director.
